

Current Clinical Applications of Stem Cells

EuroStemCell Workshop 20th March 2006

Kohn Centre, The Royal Society, 6-9 Carlton House Terrace, London SW1Y 5AG

| | |
|-------------|---|
| 9 am | Registration and coffee |
| 9.15 | Fiona Watt (Cancer Research UK) Introduction |
| 9.30 | David Linch (University College London) Bone marrow transplantation: past, present and future |
| 10.15 | Yann Barrandon (Lausanne) What can we learn from 20 years of grafting cultured epidermis? |
| 11.00 | Coffee |
| 11.30 | Steve Boyce (University of Cincinnati) Transplantation of cutaneous stem cells for treatment of skin wounds |
| 12.15 pm | Michele De Luca (Modena and Venice) Keratinocyte stem cells and regenerative medicine |
| 1.00 | Lunch |
| 1.45 | Mohammadreza Mirbolooki (University of Alberta) Clinical islet transplantation: update |
| 2.15 | Al Lane (Stanford University School of Medicine) Gene therapy for epidermolysis bullosa: the regulatory pathway from basic science to clinical trials in the USA |
| 3.00 | Tea |
| 3.30 | Nagy Habib (Imperial College London): Clinical applications of adult liver stem progenitor cells |
| 4.15 | Colin Song (Singapore General Hospital) Development of CEA programme and epithelial stem cell research – a Singapore perspective |
| 5.00 | Fiona Watt (CR UK) Meeting summary – lessons for clinical use of ES cells |
| 5.15 - 7.00 | Reception |

Jenny Steere, Forum Programme Officer,

The Academy of Medical Sciences, 10 Carlton House Terrace, London, SW1Y 5AH

jenny.steere@acmedsci.ac.uk; tel. 0207 969 5287; fax. 0207 969 5298

